a Northwest Earth Institute discussion course

at Manor Farm, 210 Manor Road, Huntington (directions on our website)

The Northwest Earth Institute believes that “individuals, motivated by their renewed recognition of Earth-centered values, are the true facilitators of change. Only through action by committed individuals will a sustainable future be brought to fruition.” (www.nwei.org)

The purpose of “Global Warming: Changing CO<sub>2</sub>urse” is:

- To explore personal values and habits as they relate to climate change.
- To understand the history and science of global warming.
- To empower individuals to take action to curb global warming.
